

About AnS Group

In the late 1990s, AnS Antiques was born with one sole mission: to help New Yorkers find the right destination for the items they wanted to sell.

Together with my husband and through the expertise he has developed over more than 30 years, we have established ourselves as one of the most recognized businesses in the tri-state area, assisting people in buying and selling valuable, original items—each with its own story to tell. We specialize in pieces with decades of history, designed by famous creators, and collectibles that deserve a special place in a home or office.

With that passion, we decided to extend our reach, making an effort to connect even more sellers and buyers with our experience. We launched accounts on online selling platforms, participated in auctions, and traveled through neighborhoods, cities, and states, earning thousands of satisfied customer testimonials.

Today, we are thrilled to open our own online store, a safe, reliable space where you can enjoy a seamless shopping experience and closely examine every aspect of our curated items. Above all, we are committed to providing real-time assistance with any questions about our stock.

As the woman leading this space, I invite you to explore and be captivated by a world filled with history, elegance, and emotion, and to take joy in finding pieces that bring happiness to your life.

Welcome!
